The following innovations were added to my project:

1. The tables used include search filters at the top of each column. If you type a search string and wait a second the table will refresh to just show the rows whose columns matched the search string.
2. The columns in the tables are all sortable if you click on the column name.
3. I have implemented an Add Student To Module option on the List Modules page.